

Jefferson County Public Library Board of Trustees Unity of Control Governance Policy 3.1

Only officially passed motions of the Library Board are binding on the Executive Director.

Accordingly:

1. Decisions or instructions of individual Library Board members, officers, or committees are not binding on the Executive Director except when the Library Board has specifically delegated this authority.
2. If Library Board members or committees request information or assistance without Library Board authorization, the Executive Director can refuse such requests that require, in his/her opinion, an inappropriate amount of staff time or funds or are disruptive.
