Where to get forms Dónde conseguir formularios

All Jefferson County Public Library locations have state and federal tax forms and instruction books, available while supplies last.

Forms from other states are available on the Internet.

Please ask a librarian if you need assistance finding these forms.

Tax Aide

Volunteers from the AARP Tax Aide program will help you complete both your state and federal income tax forms.

Tax Aide consultations are available at the Arvada, Belmar, Columbine, Golden, Lakewood and Standley Lake libraries on a walk-in basis and by appointment at the Evergreen Library from early February through April 15. For details, please see the AARP Tax Help schedule in the libraries or on the web at www.jeffcolibrary.org.

For other Tax Aide locations call:

AARP Tax Aide 1-888-227-7669

or visit www.aarp.org/money/taxaide

Jefferson County Public Library carries a number of tax resources. Library staff is neither authorized nor qualified to provide tax assistance. For tax advice, please contact a tax advisor or an IRS or Colorado Department of Revenue representative.

You may find the following books helpful:

Your Income Tax by the JK Lasser Tax Institute;

Ernst & Young Tax Guide by Ernst & Young, LLP.

These publications are available at all Jefferson County Public Library locations in the reference and circulating collections under the number 343.73052.
